

Project Profile

Carrapateena Exploration Camp Services

Client	Oz Minerals
Location	Carrapateena, South Australia
Duration	January 2012 - Ongoing
Contract	Catering and Camp Management Services for approximately 40 men
Cost	$450,000

Project Overview

Construction and management of Exploration Camp at Carrapateena, South Australia.

McMahon Services was engaged by OZ Minerals to construct the Exploration Camp at Carrapateena, 165km NE of Port Augusta in the Mid North of South Australia.

Due to the quality of service that was being provided to its own construction personnel by Drummond Solutions (McMahon Services nominated Catering Contractor for the construction work), McMahon Services was invited to provide a short term Catering and Camp Management Contract. This contract provided OZ Minerals with sufficient time to prepare suitable documents for their long term contract.

McMahon Services, and its Camp Management Contractor – Drummond Solutions, were required to facilitate this agreement with extremely short notice and work commenced over the construction industry’s Christmas shutdown period.

The challenges faced by McMahon Services and Drummond Solutions in executing this short term contract included:
